About Pitango:

Pitango was founded in 2002 by Yasmin and Ofer Shenhave who saw a gap in the market for real, home style cooked soups. Pitango first started by distributing from the back of a soup van and today is one of the most popular soup and meal brands distributed across NZ and Australia through Australian family-owned company Beak and Johnston.

Pitango are passionate about real food that tastes great and is good for you. Their cooks only use natural ingredients that you would find in your kitchen at home and they make their meat stocks from scratch, fresh, every day. Pitango carefully select the finest quality ingredients and use simple techniques to bring out the best flavour.

Real, honest food and nothing else.
